

CHÉRI SAMBA

Born 1956 in Kinto-M'Vuila, Democratic Republic of Congo, former Zaire
Lives and works in Kinshasa (Democratic Republic of Congo)

Chéri Samba or Samba wa Mbimba N'zingo Nuni Masi Ndo Mbasi (born December 30, 1956 in Kinto M'Vuila) is a painter from the Democratic Republic of Congo. He is one of the most famous contemporary African artists, with his works being included in the collections of the Centre Georges Pompidou in Paris and the Museum of Modern Art in New York. He has been invited to participate in the 2007 Venice Biennale. His paintings almost always include text in French and Lingala, commenting on life in Africa and the modern world. Chéri Samba lives in Kinshasa and Paris.

Chéri Samba was born in Kinto M'Vuila as the elder son of a family of ten children. His father was a blacksmith and his mother a farmer. In 1972, at the age of 16 he left the village to find work as a sign painter in the capital Kinshasa.

In 1975 he opened his own studio. At the same time he also became an illustrator for the entertainment magazine Bilenge Info. It is at this time when he develops his signature style of combining paintings with text. His work earns him some local fame. His breakthrough was the exhibition Les Magiciens de la Terre at the Centre Georges Pompidou in Paris in 1989, which made him known internationally.
